ADJECTIVES

Most adjectives can be used in two positions. When they are used before the noun they describe, they are called attributive:

Example:

- a black cat

- a slow journey
- a large suitcase

When they are used after a verb such as be, become, grow, look, or seem, they're called predicative:

Example:

- The cat was black.
- The future looks gloomy.
- The journey seemed slow.
- They were growing tired.
